

Cordially invite you to

40th Anniversary of the Genizah Research Unit at Cambridge

This evening is part of the ISDCL conference on
"Emotion in Prayer during the Second Temple Period"

19.30 Refreshments

20.00 – Chair: Dr. Moshe Lavee, Head, The Interdisciplinary Center for the Broader Application of Genizah Research, University of Haifa

Greetings: Prof. Michal Yerushalmy, Vice President and Dean of Research

~ Musical interlude ~

Prof. Efraim Lev, Head, The Interdisciplinary Center for the Broader Application of Genizah Research, University of Haifa:

“A Decade of Fresh Progress through Genizah Study – the History of Medicine and Pharmacology”.

Prof. Mordechai A. Friedman, Department of Talmud, Tel Aviv University:

“New Light from the Genizah on Abraham Maimonides's Prayer Reform”.

~ Musical interlude ~

Dr. Ben M. Outhwaite, Head of the Genizah Research Unit, Cambridge University Library:

“The Cairo Genizah and the Redirection of Jewish Studies: the First 100 years”.

Prof. Stefan Reif, Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge University; Founding Director of the Genizah Research Unit, Cambridge University Library, Cambridge:

“Concluding 40 Years of Genizah Research with some Personal Reflections”.

Aviva & Samy Ofer Observation Gallery, Eshkol Tower, University of Haifa
Monday, February 3rd, 2014